There are 2 eLearning modules available that cover the basic information that all professionals working with children and young people need around child exploitation.

- 1- Child sexual exploitation
- 2- Child Criminal Exploitation

Childhood regained face to face session

This training aims to equip professionals with the knowledge and skills to respond appropriately to concerns around child exploitation. It gives professionals the tools to take a proactive approach, ensuring children and young people are safeguarded and feel able to engage with services

Sandwell's learning from C SPR's training offer

Hidden men- finding ways forward

Engaging with males who live in the home or have significant importance for children and young people is a priority in Sandwell as it is often found in C SPR's that this is not happening. This session addresses the concerns around engaging with men and its importance within safeguarding to get the best outcomes.

Journeying to a culturally competent, open and understanding workforce

This training aims to increase knowledge and understanding of why families may not engage with professionals as well as equipping them with the skills to recognise and challenge where there is disguised compliance with services.

Working with resistance and disguised compliance

This training aims to increase knowledge and understanding of why families may not engage with professionals as well as equipping them with the skills to recognise and challenge where there is disguised compliance with services.

Learning from C SPR- SC

This is an eLearning module looking at the thematic review that was completed following the murder of a 17 year old in 2021. The review discusses issues of disparity and disproportionality and how we can all work better together to tackle these issues for better outcomes.

Additional multi-agency training offer
